PADDLEexpo 2019 // Industry Party

INDUSTRY DINNER

Complimentary bar & buffet?

The story behind the PADDLEexpo dinner

Before PADDLEexpo, the professionals met in Southern Bavaria, where manufacturers like Klepper, Prijon, Blue & White and Bavaria Boats are located. They all held in-house shows for their customers on the same weekend, some other "exhibitors" booked the ballroom at the local hotel to display their latest developments at the same time.

In the evening the suppliers invited all of their customers to a traditional Bavarian "Biergarten Restaurant" for dinner and a party.

Many things have changed since those early days. The show is bigger, we are not at a Biergarten anymore, but the idea is still the same: PADDLEexpo industry dinner is the annual invitation from all PADDLEexpo exhibitors to all of their customers.

HÄNDLERABEND

Kostenlose Bar, kostenloses Buffet?

Die Geschichte hinter dem PADDLEexpo-Dinner

Vor der PADDLEexpo trafen sich die Geschäftsleute der Kanubranche in Südbayern, wo Hersteller wie Klepper, Prijon, Blue & White und Bavaria Boats ansässig waren. Sie hielten alle am gleichen Wochenende Hausmessen für ihre Kunden ab. Andere Hersteller buchten den Saal des örtlichen Hotels, um ihre neuesten Entwicklungen zu zeigen.

Am Abend luden dann sämtliche Lieferanten alle ihre Kunden in einem traditionellen bayerischen Biergarten-Restaurant zum gemeinsamen Abendessen und Feiern ein.

Viele Dinge haben sich seit damals geändert. Die Messe ist größer, wir sind nicht mehr in einem Biergarten, aber die Idee ist immer noch die gleiche: Das PADDLEexpo-Branchendinner ist die jährliche Einladung der PADDLEexpo-Aussteller an alle ihre Kunden.

INTERNATIONAL WHITEWATER HALL OF FAME

International Whitewater Hall of Fame Announces 2019 Honorees

Induction ceremony at PADDLEexpo in Nuremberg, Germany

The International Whitewater Hall of Fame (IWHO) has announced its inductees for the Class of 2019. The selected honorees join an esteemed group of the world's most accomplished whitewater pioneers, explorers, champions, and advocates.

"We are extremely excited to honour this year's inductees with our partners at the ACA," said IWHO Board of Governors Chair Risa Shimoda. "This year's voting was extremely close and very competitive, and should make for a special induction ceremony at the PADDLEexpo event being held in Nuremberg, Germany on October 5th, 2019."

IWHO 2013: Graham Mackereth, Peter Knowles, Milo Duffek (Ramon Eaton not on picture)

As with years past, nominations for consideration were submitted through and vetted through IWHO Affiliate Organizations. From the list, the IWHO screening panel developed the ballot of Pioneer and Advocates candidates for electorate voting June 2019. The Explorer and Champion nominations were too few in number to support their ballot categories: those nominees will be moved forward for consideration in 2021.

The following have been elected to the International Whitewater Hall of Fame Class of 2019 and join 46 previously inducted leaders and legends:

PIONEER:

Hermann & Christa Kerckhoff (Canada) – Responsible for Canada's longest-running whitewater instruction school, the first whitewater management plan guaranteeing whitewater flows, and purchased access to extremely popular Ottawa River.

ADVOCATE:

Joe Pulliam (USA), an outstanding contributor to whitewater as a manufacturer (Perception, Dagger, Jackson Kayak) and supporter of whitewater river stewardship for four decades.

Chris Hawkesworth (UK), early adventurer, early filmmaker, contributor to the development of standards for helmets and other safety equipment, and advocate for whitewater course development through a fifty-plus year period.

The 2019 honorees are planning to attend and receive their awards.

The Class of 2019 Induction Ceremony will take place in Nuremberg, Germany on October 5th during the annual PADDLEexpo industry trade show. Attendees will see the debut of a video presentation ceremony honoring the inductees. "We are an International Whitewater Hall of Fame, and we recognize the size and importance of our international membership base," said IWHO board member Pamela Dillon. "Holding the ceremony in conjunction with the PADDLEexpo festivities will provide an opportunity for international paddlers and other individuals seeking stories of whitewater history and inspiration for the future to witness the induction and meet these revered whitewater heroes." While the trade show is for industry attendees only, a limited number of induction ceremony tickets are available for the public: contact IWHO@americancanoe.org for more information.

ABOUT THE INTERNATIONAL WHITEWATER HALL OF FAME (IWHO)

The International Whitewater Hall of Fame (IWHO) is a program of the American Canoe Association (ACA) and is designed to recognize and celebrate significant contributions to paddlesports. IWHO is led by an international Board of Governors who hail from various paddling backgrounds. Nominations are sought and submitted through IWHO Affiliates around the world and screened by an international panel. Over 100 members of the IWHO electorate are eligible to cast votes in each category to determine the honorees. Submitted recommendations are good for six years, after which they must be re-submitted. Each year up to two honorees may be chosen in the categories of Pioneer, Explorer, Champion and Advocate.

See past inductees and find more information at: www.IWHO.org
